

Upcoming Events

Show only the first upcoming instance of recurring events

American Art Collector Magazine Article

July 15 - August 18

Susan Stamm Evans is featured in this brilliant article, "Advocate For The Arts" by John O'Hern in the American Art Collector Magazine, June 2016 publication.

Registration for the 26th International Sculpture Conference Sculpture in Context: Tradition and Innovation is open now.

Registration for the 26th International Sculpture Conference

July 27 @ 6:00 pm - September 29 @ 6:00 pm

Registration for the 26th International Sculpture Conference is now open! ISC Member – register now to save $85 off the regular registration price, and chapter members always save more. Members can also sign up for the littleSCULPTURE Show, an exhibition comprised of small artworks and an annual conference tradition. This conference will feature exciting panel

SATOYAMA Art is holding a public exhibit of its forest art to celebrate International Sculpture Day.

July 31, 2016 - April 24, 2017

Since July 2012, SATOYAMA has continued to create works that embody the gentle relationship between nature and humanity. The exhibition uses a combination of living standing trees and timber from forest thinning (cypress and cedar trees) to create a form of land art across the mountain. For International Sculpture Day we are holding a long term exhibition that displays these works to the public and accepts new